MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the court on the plaintiffs' motion for preliminary and final approval of a proposed partial settlement agreement with defendant John Boyce, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Filing No. 467. This is a class action for securities fraud pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 77 et seq. The case has been certified as a class action. Filing No. 299.

In considering preliminary approval, the court makes a preliminary evaluation of the fairness of the settlement, prior to notice. Manual of Complex Litigation (Fourth) § 21.632 (2010); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). First, the court must make a preliminary determination of the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement terms and must direct the preparation of notice of the proposed settlement and the date of the fairness hearing. Id. After an agreement is preliminarily approved, the second step of the process ensues: notice is given to the class members of a hearing, at which time class members and the settling parties may be heard with respect to final court approval. Id.

A district court is required to consider four factors in making a final determination that a settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate: (1) the merits of the plaintiff's case, weighed against the terms of the settlement; (2) the defendant's financial condition; (3) the complexity and expense of further litigation; and (4) the amount of opposition to the settlement. In re Wireless Telephone Federal Cost Recovery Fees Litigation, 396 F.3d 922, 931 \(8th Cir. 2005\). A court may also consider procedural fairness to ensure the settlement is “not the product of fraud or collusion.” Id. at 934. The experience and opinion of counsel on both sides may be considered, as well as whether a settlement resulted from arm’s length negotiations, and whether a skilled mediator was involved. See DeBoer v. Mellon Mortgage Co., 64 F.3d 1171, 1178 (8th Cir. 1995). A court may also consider the settlement’s timing, including whether discovery proceeded to the point where all parties were fully aware of the merits. See City P’ship Co. v. Atlantic Acquisition Ltd. P’ship, 100 F.3d 1041, 1043 (1st Cir. 1996).

The court has reviewed the proposed settlement agreement, Filing No. 469, Index of Evid., Settlement Agreement (Doc # 469-1, Page ID ## 4650-59). The agreement provides that defendant Boyce will pay $12,500.00 for the benefit of the class. Lead plaintiffs have shown that the proposed settlement in the best interests of the plaintiff class because defendant Boyce has no insurance coverage and no source of additional funds or other assets available for execution of any judgment obtained against Boyce personally. Filing No. 470, Affidavit of Gregory Scaglione and J. L. Spray. The court finds the proposed settlement in the best interests of the plaintiff class, based on the claims and defenses in this action, its procedural posture, and the anticipated time and expense of protracted litigation. The proposed settlement between the plaintiff class and defendant John Boyce appears, on preliminary review, to be within the range of reasonableness for a settlement with an uninsured and insolvent defendant. Accordingly, the court finds the proposed partial settlement should be submitted to class members for their consideration and a fairness hearing under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), after which an order of final approval will issue. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The plaintiffs' motion for preliminary approval of proposed partial settlement agreement (Filing No. 467) is granted.
2. The proposed partial settlement agreement with defendant John Boyce (Filing No. 469) is preliminarily approved.
3. A Fairness Hearing is scheduled before the undersigned on April 28, 2011, at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom No. 3, Roman L. Hruska U.S. Courthouse, 111 South 18th Plaza, Omaha, Nebraska.
4. A Notice of Proposed Partial Settlement of Class Action & Fairness Hearing in substantially the same form as that approved in Filing No. 321 is approved.

5. Within 7 days of the date of this order, class counsel shall mail (in the name of the clerk of court, by first class mail, postage prepaid) the Notice of Proposed Partial Settlement of Class Action & Fairness Hearing, in substantially the form approved by the court, to all class members.

6. Within 7 days of the date of the mailing of the notice, class counsel shall file an affidavit identifying the persons to whom notice has been mailed.

DATED this 30th day of March, 2011.
